ADELPHIAN

Bible Class, Its Past, Present And Future

Interestingly Described By The Hon. W. E. Sefton

In A Paper At The Banquet Of Recent Date

Telling Of Founding Of The Class In This City

And The Amount Of Work It Has Accomplished

The following paper on the Adelphian Bible class—Its Past, Present and Future, was read by Mr. W. E. Sefton at the Adelphian Bible class banquet in the Pythian armory on last Friday evening:

Of its origin I can say it was rather obscure. It was organized and christened The Bible Lecture class about five years ago, and under most unpretentious circumstances. The original membership consisted of four men, championed by Bro. Roush, who delivered a lecture each Lord's morning on a Bible theme with reference to the international lesson. Its numerical growth was slow, but with increasing loyalty to God and one another. It, however, increased in numbers gradually, until it had 26 names of loyal, active men enrolled. After an existence of little more than one year, it lost its instructor, who left us to assume labor in another field.

Soon after his leaving, Bro. Newcomer, its present hustling, energetic, enthusiastic and most capable leader, guiding genius and inspiration became its teacher. From the time he assumed the leadership the class began to reach out into broader fields and after greater conquests, soon increased interest was manifest. The spirit for enlargement seemed to have taken root in the hearts of the members and they, through the direction of Bro. Newcomer's wise generalship, went out into the highways and byways, inviting men who had no Bible school affiliations, to come and be learners with them.

With the blessing of God, these men's work began to tell, and many were added each Lord's day, until you see this magnificent body of men seated here, which at the beginning numbered about four, but now over five hundred, brothers and comrades. Cosmopolitan in character and make-up, homogenous in all that goes to make one harmonious whole, those of a higher social condition of life rejoicing that they have been brought down, whilst those who have not been so highly blessed rejoicing that they have been exalted, for in the Adelphian class we know no man after the flesh, but are all one in aims and ambitions, having but one common purpose, viz: seeking for instruction in the ways of righteousness and greater knowledge of God and Christ, whose ways are ways of pleasantness and whose paths are peace.

Here is taught and practiced the principles of the great Brotherhood of God and man. When the stranger enters this communion he is not asked for a pedigree, nor for a statement of his past life or present environment, but without reference to his past or present, is taken in full fellowship, given the glad hand of welcome. Let me say here and now, the Adelphian class is today the greatest factor for the uplifting of men of any society in the community, for we practice what we teach and we teach nothing only what we find recorded in God's Holy Word.

Where the Bible speaks, the teacher speaks and where the Bible is silent, he is silent. We have not ecclesiastical burdens to bind on any man, but teach and practice the principles of the great Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of man, under the influence of this teaching must return to his home, with a higher conception of the God we honor and serve, as well as being a better husband, father, brother and American citizen. We have briefly spoken of the past and present, but what of the future?

Eternity alone can tell the story of hope, courage, strength and higher conception of this life that has to come to us, to abide and be with us, in all the days God may give us to enjoy and use here on earth. If we are faithful and continue to be alive to our opportunities, loyal to the teaching of Christ, what we have been and now are, with reference to betterment of men of Mt. Vernon is but a foretaste of the future.

Let me say in conclusion, that I believe that the Adelphian Bible class will always be found occupying advanced ground and on the firing line, in all movements for the uplifting and betterment of the social, moral and spiritual condition of Mt. Vernon, without reference to party, creed or condition. Therefore let us inscribe on our banner this motto for future guidance, "The Adelphian Bible class stands for Christ, home, manhood and the uplifting of men for civic benefits and moral uplift."

MARRIAGE

And Divorce Will Be More Difficult

If These Proposed Bills Are Passed

Marriage will be more difficult and divorce less easily obtained, if twin bills introduced by Representative Brenner of Clark county into the Ohio legislature are enacted into laws.

Secret marriages and elopements will not be as common as they are now, and persons going into court seeking a legal separation in cases which they know will be uncontested will have to have clean hands and be able to establish a good character.

The measure relating to marriages provides that the license must be obtained at least five days before the date set for the wedding. Mr. Brenner believes that the time given for reflection will prevent many hasty and ill-advised marriages and, more than that, it will put the parents wise.

The measure relating to the procedure in divorce cases will provide that the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the defendant in all uncontested divorce cases. It is made the duty of the attorney so appointed to investigate the character, and life of the party suing for divorce, and to appear at the trial and inform the court as to the result of his investigations.

COUNCIL

Holds A Brief Session On Monday Evening

When Routine Business Was Transacted

The session of the city council Monday evening was very short, owing to the fact that there was no business to attend to that demanded attention. The meeting was called to order with President Dever in the chair and all members answered as their names were called. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read by Clerk McIntire and accepted as read.

Solicitor Leonard reported that the case of Wilson vs. the City of Mt. Vernon had been dismissed by the United States supreme court. The resolution, that the fines amounting to $205, collected by the mayor for violations of the liquor laws, be placed in a fund to aid in the prosecution of violations of the Rose law, was read for the third time. After a discussion and consideration by the council, it was put to a vote, all voting aye, except Messrs. Cole and Dubinsky. The resolution was passed.

Mr. Dubinsky reported that the hospital committee had made arrangements with the township trustees to meet jointly Thursday evening to consider and decide on the subject in question. Mr. Farrison reported that the light committee had conferred with Manager Mitchell of the Mt. Vernon Railway and Light company and Mr. Mitchell had stated that the company was in a position to furnish the current for some additional lights for the city of Mt. Vernon. On motion, it was decided that when the meeting adjourned, it would adjourn for two weeks. After this, the meeting was adjourned as there was no other business that demanded attention.

BRITAIN

Now Has A New Sea Lord—Something About Him

London, Jan. 25.—Pursuant to the official announcement made at the beginning of the year, Sir John Fisher, or Lord Theford, as he has become since his elevation to the peerage, today retired from the office of First Sea Lord of the British navy. He is succeeded by Admiral Sir Arthur Knyvet Wilson, who has the reputation of being the ablest expert on gunnery, strategy and tactics in the British navy.

The new First Sea Lord has had a long and distinguished career. Like his predecessor he was graduated in the torpedo school, and he is the inventor of several appliances connected with the use of torpedoes. In the course of his long career he has achieved about all the honors and decorations that can be hoped for by a British naval officer. Besides having the Victoria Cross, a decoration given usually for signal bravery in battle, he is a Grand Commander of the Victorian Order. He got his C. D. in 1897 and was made a Knight Commander of the Bath five years later and a Grand Commander in 1906.

Sir Arthur was born in 1842 and gained his first experience as a fighter off Sebastopol as a twelve-year-old midshipman. He took part in the storming of the Taku forts in China and served in the Egyptian campaign of 1882 and in the Sudan campaign in 1884.

It was at the battle of El Teb on the Red Sea coast that Sir Arthur, then a captain, won the Victoria Cross. It was at a critical moment when a corner of the British square had been torn asunder by a furious onslaught of the fanatical dervishes and through the gap the way seemed open for them to pour in and turn the battle into absolute rout. Wilson sprang into the breach and single handed as he was lay about him with his sword and absolutely held the enemy in check until some of the soldiers rushed to his assistance.

The list of Sir Arthur's successive offices is long. He became captain in 1880, rear admiral in 1895, vice admiral in 1896, admiral in 1901, was aide de camp to the Queen from 1892 to 1895, lord commissioner of the admiralty and controller of the navy from 1897 to 1901, commander of the channel squadron from 1901 to 1903, commander in chief of the home and channel fleets from 1903 to 1907 and admiral of the fleet in 1907.

REV. REAGER

Describes The "Tenderloin" Of Canton, O.

In A Sermon To Members Of His Church

The Rev. J. S. Reager, secretary of the Ohio State Campmeeting association, which meets each summer at Camp Sychar, and who was also a former pastor of the Gay St. M. E. church, this city, has completed a trip through the "Red Light" district, of Canton and an account of his experience in given in the following from Canton:

Canton, O., Jan. 25.—The Ministerial association of Canton expects to use information gained by the Rev. J. S. Reager, who made a personal investigation incognito of the Canton tenderloin last week, in a crusade to compel the city administration to clean up the city.

Rev. Reager told his congregation about his experience in a sermon from his pulpit last night. He said: "I found the young swells of Canton there."

"I found a married man whose wife and toddling baby waited for him at home."

"I found a clerk in a store where most of you have dealings."

"I saw one gray haired old sinner whom many of you know, and whose name in this connection would bring shame to many."

Rev. Reager hit Chief of Police Smith's plan to regulate them. "High officials of the city say these places should be well advertised, so that all will know the way to them."

"Canton is deplorably governed."

"Evil is winked at; graft is easy."

"That's why certain men want to hold office."

"It's not a desire to serve the people."

SEVERE

Injuries Sustained By Miss Barker In Fall

Through A Door Into Basement Of A Store

Miss Belle Barker, who is employed at the J. S. Ringwalt store on South Main street, was badly injured at noon Tuesday. Miss Barker was walking along the floor when she fell through a door which had carelessly been left open. She alighted in the basement in such a position that her left shoulder was dislocated and three ribs on the right side were severely injured. Dr. H. W. Blair was called to render the necessary surgical attention, after which she was taken to her home on the Sychar road.
